

SUNDAY SERVICES

An address of special interest to all Sunday-school workers will be made this morning at 11 o'clock in the First Baptist Church, when P. H. Bristow, of Washington, superintendent of the Calvary Baptist Sunday School, will speak. The subject will be "The Sunday School as a Factor in the Christian Life." The speaker is a very forceful speaker, and his Sunday school is one of the largest in the country. He will tell how the school attained its high standard of efficiency. Joseph T. Watts, Sunday school secretary of the State Mission Board, will be present at the service. Special rally-day exercises will be held in the Sunday school. An interesting program has been arranged.

Dr. Douglas Freeman will occupy the pulpit of Seventh Street Christian Church at the evening service to-day in the absence of the pastor, Dr. H. D. C. MacLachlan, who will preach at the Third Church. Rev. B. H. Melton will conduct the morning service.

"What Has Become of Hell?" will be the subject of Dr. W. J. Young's sermon to-night in Centenary Methodist Church. At the morning service he will preach on "The Life More Blessed."

All the medical students and trained nurses of the city are invited to attend the 4 o'clock service at Monumental Church to-day. Dr. Morris will preach, and there will be special music.

In the absence of Dr. McFadden, who will preach to-day at Cornell University, the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church will be occupied at both services by Dr. W. W. Moore, president of the Union Theological Seminary.

"Give Close Attention to Your Heart" will be the subject of Dr. W. Asbury Christian's sermon this morning in Union Station Methodist Church. He will preach this evening on the "Bugsaboo of Criticism. Does It Scare You?"

Dr. Lloyd T. Wilson, the pastor, will preach this morning in Grace Street Baptist Church on the subject, "The Supreme Value of Systematic Bible Study." The annual church meeting will be held this afternoon.

An Open Letter From Mr. Meetze

Permit me through the columns of the Times-Dispatch to express myself upon the question of the Speakership of the next House of Delegates. First let me say to the members-elect of the House, and to the good people of the State of Virginia, that I am a candidate for that honorable position, subject always to the rules and wishes of the majority of members of the House caucus.

My hat is in the ring, and shall remain there until the Speaker has been named.

Much has been said, Mr. Editor, through your paper about the candidacy of Messrs. Cox, White and Williams. It is true that these men have been before the State as candidates since the Hon. Richard Evelyn Byrd announced his retirement from the House, and while they are all I am men, I am not taking issue with them along lines of great importance to the people. First, let me say that nothing I shall say shall be directed against any of these gentlemen, as they all know that I have the feeling of respect for them ready to go to them and put my arms around any of them in the most friendly way and am not going to say the word through your paper that I would not proclaim from the floor of the House, but I challenge Mr. Cox and Mr. White in regard to their position on the Jordan enabling act in the last House, and as to how they stand to-day. They have no right to ask the people for this honor, for they have placed themselves on record in the Journal of the House of 1912, as being opposed to submitting to the people questions upon which the people had a legal right and moral right to vote upon.

Now, gentlemen, don't squirm or twinge. These are cold facts. You squirmed and twinged enough in the 1912 session, but the people are going to see if they can't make you squirm some more. You well know, the Legislature of 1912 was not asked to vote for or against the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors, but were petitioned to pass the Jordan enabling act, thereby giving the people the right to petition the Governor to call an election, when a certain percentage of the qualified voters signed the petition.

Every man's hands were united. We were not asked how we would vote when the election was called, but only asked to pass the necessary legislation, so those who were interested in this question could have a right to express themselves by ballot, and I am frank to say that we, as a House, and servants of the people, have no right to deprive the people of this privilege. Every man could have voted to suit himself, and when the time came to vote the great cry was unconstitutionally, and Mr. White got a beautiful vote. He is represented by the liquor interests, for his right against the measure. The odor of these flowers has long since passed away.

Mr. Cox filibustered and offered amendments and intended to strike out certain clauses, until, if the bill had been passed the way Mr. Cox wanted it, it would not have been worth the paper it was written on.

I ask you gentlemen to tell the people if you believe under our Constitution and from your stand in the 1912 House, you should be considered as Democrats, because you have not only by your votes, but by your untiring efforts and ability in that fight, that you were opposing it to the people, and to maintain that when a man is opposed to the majority of the people ruling in it, not a Democrat, will you say another question. If elected Speaker would you put such men on this committee as would be interested in this question, or would you put a majority of men on this committee who are opposed to the liquor interests, or would you put a majority of men on this committee who are in favor of the liquor interests? These are very pointed questions. I will admit, but the people have a right to know how you stand and where to find you upon all matters.

Notice, Mr. Editor, in your issue of October 8th, and also by letter, that our good friend from Hampton, Hon. Harry E. Houston, has been elected to the Speakership train for repairs. I am sorry Brother Houston has done this, but nevertheless, I don't believe his strength can be turned over to Mr. Cox, or the nineteen votes claimed by him delivered to him. I am glad Mr. Houston did not vote for me, no reason that I can turn him over to anyone else if I see it to the advantage of a man might make that request, but that would not deliver the vote. I am glad Mr. Houston did not allow his hands to be tied and if they are being tied, I call upon him to free himself from the powers that are weighing him down. Let us all go to Richmond in January FIVE men, to vote as our conscience dictates to us, and for the best interest of the people in the entire State. We have a great deal to do, and no time should be wasted in anything but the business for which we are elected by the people to attend to the affairs of the State. So let us get on with it.

Now, Mr. Editor, I want you, through the columns of the Times-Dispatch, to put the questions of the day to the respective candidates, in interrogatory form, and ask them to answer them, upon the tax bill, the fee system, the enabling act, or any other questions that you may see fit to ask. If you are afraid to tell upon what platform they stand, we will be glad to make him Speaker of the next House, and I call upon every member again who is not now morally bound to any particular man not to have his hands tied, but to come to Richmond as a FREEMAN, to vote as he thinks best when the time comes to vote.

With the hope that the 1914 House shall go down in history as one which worked for the good of all the people in our dear Commonwealth, and that no bill shall be passed except such as shall be for the moral uplift and financial strength of the State and society, I am

Yours very respectfully,
C. MEETZE.

Use O-Cedar Polish

The O-Cedar Polish Way

Wet a Piece of Cloth—in water—cheese cloth is the best.

Wring It Dry—or until it is just slightly more than damp.

Pour on O-Cedar Polish until the cloth contains as much polish as it does water.

Go Over the Surface
to be cleaned. Varnish absorbs O-Cedar but not water—the friction removes the dirt and dust—and the surface is cleaned.

Polish with a Dry Cloth
Slight rubbing will quickly produce the desired lustre and finish.

The Beauty of the Grain is brought out—seeming blemishes disappear—and the article looks like new.

A Hard, Dry Lustre not gummy or sticky. A cambric handkerchief would not be soiled if placed on any article polished the O-Cedar Polish Way.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring color, lustre and thickness to hair when faded, streaked or gray.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application of progressive hair restorer enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustre and abundant.

WONDERS ARE BEING DONE WITH THE QUAKER REMEDIES

Mrs. Mary E. Trener, residing at 615 Fourth Avenue, N. W., Roanoke, Va., had been suffering for many years from a complication of diseases, such as catarrh, stomach, kidney and bladder troubles, also rheumatism. She had severe headaches, and had throat and bronchial trouble so bad that she would take coughing spells, and would cough for half an hour at a time.

She was not able to rest at night on account of the coughing spells. Her stomach became so bad that she could scarcely eat anything at all, and caused her great misery. Her kidneys and bladder caused her untold suffering, and she had pains in the back, bowels, sides and chest, and her rheumatism troubled her very much. She had pains and soreness in the arms and limbs, and was in such a weak, run-down condition that she could scarcely get from the house out into the yard. Mrs. Trener said, "I have spent hundreds of dollars trying all the different remedies that I could buy, but all that I tried did not seem to reach my case. I was getting weaker and weaker all the time, and about given up all hopes of ever getting any relief from my misery, when a friend of mine told me about the great Quaker Remedies at Humphreys & Webber's drug-store that he had been using, and of the great benefit received from them, and he advised me at least to give them a trial. I told him that I was not able to call, as I was weak and could scarcely get out of the house. He said he would bring a bottle of the Quaker Herb Extract to me if I would give it a trial.

This I consented to do, and am now thankful that I did. After taking one bottle I was able to walk from home to the drug store to tell what the Quaker Herb Extract has done for me.

"I scarcely have any cough at all now; my appetite is much better; my pains and aches are almost gone, and I am in a stronger and healthier condition than I have been for many a year. I want to praise the Quaker Herb Extract and recommend it to any one suffering from any complaints that I have suffered from."

If you are suffering from catarrh, stomach, liver, kidney and bladder troubles, or rheumatism, male or female troubles, or female complaints, or worms of any kind, to call at Tragle's drug store, 317 East Broad Street, and obtain Quaker Herb Extract—six bottles for $5.00, three for $2.50, or $1.00 a single bottle. Oil of Balm for all aches or pains, 50 cents.—Advertisement.
